Dear Gavin,

Michael and I want to thank you for your outstanding service. We currently live overseas and I would not hesitate in using you again for another property purchase. In fact I would use your services even if we were to move back and be living in Australia.

We had been planning to buy a house for over a year and despite at least two trips back to Sydney to do it myself it just did not prove possible. I believe we would still be looking if I hadn't used Oasis.

The service is dedicated, professional and highly responsive, not too mention great value – a winning combination in my books. As in everything I do I researched and compared the competition beforehand and am very happy to say I was completely satisfied with my choice in using Oasis. The added value of Natalie and the conveyancing services make the package absolutely complete.

Thank you again.
